Multidisciplinary Benign Urology Research Day
Sponsored by Duke Multidisciplinary K12 Urologic Research Career Development Program (KURe) and Pelvic Medicine Research Consortium (PMRC)

FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2017
Duke University, Fitzpatrick Center

Panel Discussions
Inflammation, Infection, UTI, Bladder Outlet Obstruction, Benign Prostate Hyperplasia

Keynote Speakers
Suzanne Groah, MD, MSPH
Professor of Rehabilitation Medicine,
Director of Spinal Cord Injury Consultation Liaison Service,
Spinal Cord Injury Research at MedStar National Rehabilitation Network
Georgetown University

Michael DiSanto, PhD
Associate Professor of Biomedical Sciences and Surgery;
Director of Urology Research;
Rowan University

Panelists
Jonathan Barasch, MD, PhD
Nephrology, Columbia University
Urology, Duke University
Urology, Duke University
Microbiology/Immunology, Northwestern University
Urology, Duke University
Infectious Disease, University of Washington
Public Health, Washington University
Urology, UNC

Event includes Oral Presentations, Poster Presentations, Trainee Awards, Lunch with the Experts

Faculty, Fellows, Postdocs, Students and Staff from all disciplines with an interest in any aspect of benign urological diseases are invited to attend

Information & Registration: KURe.medschool.duke.edu

Trainee Abstract Deadline: March 24